Geography helps you to develop a sense of wonder about our ever changing world as well as your place in it

Geography Learning Journey

Flashcards

Topic Booklets!

Knowledge Organisers

Case Study Quizzes

Seneca

Mind-Maps

Green Revision Guide

Final Revision and Exam Preparation

Practice papers

Topic 6 Dynamic Development

- Case Study Zambia a LIDC
- Factors affecting Development
- Uneven Development
- Measuring Development
- Country Classifications AC, EDC, LIDC

Topic 3 Distinctive Landscapes coasts

- Case Study North Devon Coast around Westward Ho!
- Coastal Landscapes and Processes
- Y11 Westward Ho! Fieldwork

Topic 4 Sustaining Ecosystems

- Tropical Rainforests
- Case Study Small-Scale Management of a rainforest. Samasati Nature Retreat in Costa Rica
- Case Study Management of Small scale area of the Arctic Marine Wildlife Area Baffin Bay in Canada
- Case Study Management at a global scale The Antarctic Treaty
- Global Ecosystems
- Polar Environments
- Y10 Virtual Rivers Fieldwork
- Y10 Wadebridge Fieldwork

Topic 3 Distinctive Landscapes rivers

- Case Study The River Severn
- River landscapes and Processes
- What is a landscape?

Topic 7 UK in the 21st Century

- Example Changing UK Food culture
- Example UK Media Exports
- Example UK role in Russia/Ukraine conflict
- Economic Change in the UK
- Example Population changes in London
- UK Impacts of climate change
- Global Impacts of climate change

Topic 2 Changing Climate

- Population changes in the UK
- Physical & Human Geography of the UK
- Causes of climate change
- Evidence of Climate Change

OCR B GCSE

Topic 1 Global Hazards

- Extreme Weather
- Case Study The Nepal Earthquake
- Tectonic Hazards
- Example Comparing extreme weather in UK and Australia
- Example London – change in a UK Economic Hub

Topic 5 Urban Futures

- Case Study The Boscastle Flash Floods
- Urbanisation
- Rapid Urban Growth in LIDC's
- Urban Trends in AC's (suburbanisation, counter-urbanisation, re-urbanisation)

Topic 8 Resource Reliance

- Sustainable ways to reduce food security
- Case Study Tanzania And Food Security
- Issues of Food Security
- GCSE Introduction
- Why do people live in hazardous areas?
- Our over-use of Natural Resources
- Case Study Drought in Australia
- World Cities and Mega-Cities
- Case Study LIDC City LAGOS
- Case Study AC City LONDON

YEAR 9

China

- Close-Up on China Exploration
- Where is China?
- China's Human Geography
- China's Physical Geography

Coasts

- How can we manage the coast?
- Polzeath Exploration
- Old Harry Rocks Exploration
- Coastal Landforms and Processes
- Off to the Coast

Tectonic Hazards

- earthquakes
- Volcanoes
- Plate Tectonics
- What is happening at Happisburgh and why?
- Mt St Helens
- Types of hazards

YEAR 8

Rivers

- Journey down a river
- Bodmin Moor Fieldwork
- River Landforms and Processes

Our Changing weather & climate

- Micro-Climate Fieldwork
- The water cycle and drainage basins
- Measuring the weather
- How is the UK climate changing?
- What are the causes, impacts and solutions to global warming?

Poverty and Development

- Grace's Story (comparison and empathy)
- How is the earth structured?
- What is development and how can we measure it?
- UK vs Ghana Exploration of Development
- Right to Water

YEAR 7

Tropical Rainforests

- Why are rainforests important? Why are they threatened and how can we protect them?
- Where are rainforests, what are they like and why are they like they are? (Plants, animals, climate, people)
- Tropical Rainforest Exploration

Cities

- Cities and Megacities
- Urbanisation (What, where, why?)

Map Skills

- Symbols, Direction, Relief, Cross-sections, Grid references, Scale
- Rural and Urban?

Places

- Types of Geography (Physical & Human)
- Where is My Mystery Place?
- My global connections
- Places from Local to Global

World Geography

- Extending our geographical knowledge of different countries and regions in the world
- Africa India Middle East Russia
- Eden Project Visit
- Our World recap

KS3

welcome

GCSE Trial Exam

Assessment Point

'Geography is the subject that holds the key to our future.' Michael Palin