

Trustee profile statement – Wadebridge, April 2025

After 35 years teaching in secondary schools across England, twenty five of them as a senior leader and manager, David first moved to Cornwall in 1996 to take up the post of Deputy Head at Wadebridge School. He then moved to Budehaven Community School as headteacher in 2002. Since retiring from headship in 2016, David has been a self-employed education consultant with much of his work supporting secondary school leaders in their work. He joined the trust board at Wadebridge School in Autumn 2016.

In addition to being a trustee at Wadebridge, and Chair of the board since Autumn 2022, David is a trustee with Aspire Academy Trust and a Hub Councillor at St Breock Primary School, an academy in the Aspire trust. He is also a Member with the Special Partnership Trust.
